

My name is Guðrún Ágústa Ágústsdóttir. I was born and raised in the Vestman Island where I finished ground school. I moved to Reykjavík around age of 17 years to go to high school and university. I finished master degree in educational science and a master diploma in family therapy from university of Iceland. I am also a mediator, a book keeper and a drug - and alcohol counsellour. In my early years I studied jazz music at conservatory. I am endlessly studying something new and I love to discover new sites on myself. I am a nature lover and I respect all life on this earth. My hobbies are music, nature, travelling, swimming, walks and hicks and my family. I am a mother of one son who is the light of my life. I have a good sence of humor and I like to see the funny side of life, it is much easier to live life with laughter.
