

I am called Kala in short, but my full name is Kalaanathakrishnan living in Reykjavik, Iceland since DEC 2019 along with my family.

Professional Skills:

"I have successfully completed my Bachelor of Mathematics (B.Sc.; Maths) and Bachelor of Education (B.Ed) with first-class honours.

Moreover, I have attained proficiency in Icelandic, completing level 2 and currently pursuing level 3.

In addition, I possess qualifications in English typewriting (higher).

My interests include continuous self-improvement through learning from others. I am highly motivated and consistently strive for personal growth.

I am particularly passionate about working with children and find joy in providing them with the utmost care and attention.

As for my hobbies, I enjoy listening to music, exploring various cuisines, spending time with friends, and adorning myself with Indian heritage jewels."
